FROM : [REDACTED] OTR/IS/OBF

SUBJECT : Report of Vietnam Station Orientation #7-69

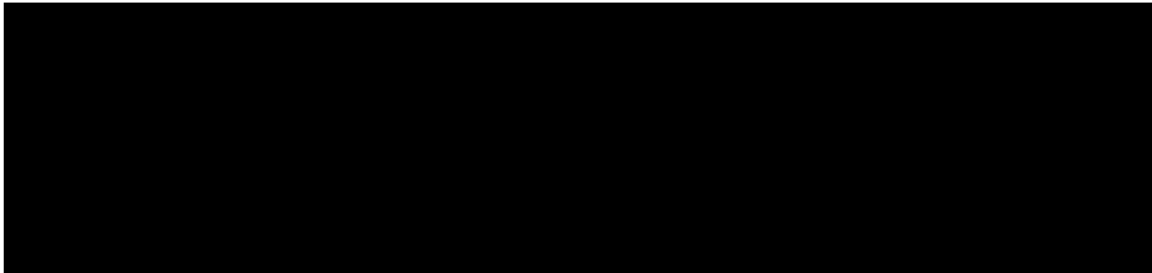

1. Basic Data

25X9A2

The 33rd installment of the Vietnam Station Orientation, in this instance No. 7-69, was completed 14-18 April 1969. [REDACTED] 25X9A2 [REDACTED] students attended. The class was held at Headquarters in Room 1-A-13 to the accompaniment of much pounding and drilling in the adjoining corridors.

A new man on our circuit was [REDACTED] who served four months in Vietnam as the Agency's Science Advisor. [REDACTED] showed some of the 500 slides he took in Vietnam.

4. Critiques

In three years of running these Vietnam programs I have not reported in these papers either the bouquets or the brickbats tossed at me personally in these critiques. I shall now break my self-imposed rule for the first time, and the break is triggered by, naturally, a bouquet which especially pleases me and which I quote:

"Having spent 70-80% of my 14 years with the Agency, which would indicate extensive time processing, briefings, etc. this has been, this particular orientation, the most realistic and effective program I have attended. For the most part, I believe with all sincerity this is due to [REDACTED] devotion to this program. Most persons running a course, in my experience, act as MCs, turning over the 'hour' to a speaker. Having been in Asia 7-8 years I can say most or 90% of these lectures are extremely realistic and apply to the situation as is now."
